What do Peer Specialists do?

The Virginia Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS) is offering two technical assistance webinars for providers to learn about the role of peer recovery specialists. These sessions will address stigmas and myths associated with peer recovery specialists. The conversation will cover the fundamentals of peer recovery support services, challenges that occur, and emerging best practices for peer recovery specialists. Additional informative resources will be provided to build upon the materials discussed during the training sessions. Automated closed captioning (CC) is available for these webinars with realtime captions that will run simultaneously with the presentation. The streaming text is available through Hamilton Relay Remote Conference Captioning (RCC).
